1. The former airfield at Delitzsch was dismantled and blown up in 1945 by Soviet troops. Its reconstruction is now being hurried. Several million marks have been made available for the rebuilding plan.
2. A large Soviet airfield is under construction in the vicinity of the village of Muehlbeck, near Bitterfeld. The work is already so far along that the field can soon be used. Starting and landing runways suitable for all types of airplanes are nearly completed. However, the direction-finding tower, about 40 meters high, has not yet been completed.
